

A Taste of New England

(BOSTON, NEW HAMPSHIRE & MAINE)

Experience a wonderful taste of New England in this relatively short holiday or use it as a basis on which to add extra nights or stop-overs to create your own perfect tailor-made itinerary.

WHITE MOUNTAINS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

You spend one night in Boston (see page 6) before driving north into New Hampshire's imposing White Mountains, for three nights at the welcoming Notchland Inn. On your two days here you have plenty of time for exploring the spectacular mountain scenery. Visit the historic Mount Washington Hotel at Bretton Woods, take the gondola up Wild Cat Mountain, or travel by aerial tramway to the top of Cannon Mountain (pay locally in all cases). There is great walking too - take the Davis path up Mount Crawford, explore the Franconia State Park or enjoy a quiet wander through the grounds of the inn.

DOWN EAST MAINE

From the Notchland Inn, you head east, mostly following a panoramic highway past typical New England small towns and villages. You cross inland Maine to reach the most beautiful section of the state's coast, known as Down East Maine. Here, you spend three nights on splendid Mount Desert Isle at the Ullikana Bed and Breakfast in Bar

Harbor. This is an excellent base for leisurely discovery - take a whale-watching trip (pay locally), or explore the untamed coastline, tranquil woodland and rounded mountains of the Acadia National Park, either on foot, by car or by bicycle. To learn about the culture and history of the Native Americans who have lived in Maine for more than 12,000 years, visit the Abbe Museum (free entry to Ullikana guests).
